Waterhouse.*

This is the received descent of the Waterhouses of Halifax, appearing in many authorities & admitted (I presume) at the College. But there is, I fear, a total absence of proof for anything above John & Agnes, except that names similar to these are to be found in the Court rolls of the Manor of Wakefield.

I have copied from Harl. 6070, & a few additions are made from Wills and Registers.

^{*} There is a large collection of papers relating to the Waterhouse family in the British Museum, Add. MSS. 31006—021, presented by the late John Waterhouse, Esq., of Wellhead, Halifax, mainly got together by Mr. Protheroe, with additions by Mr. Hunter.

2 3 daus are mentioned in the will of this John, Agnes, wife of James Greenwood, Jane (w.) of Tho. Midgeley, & Isabel, to whom is left the reversion of his tithe of corn, hay, wool, & lamb in Stansfield, Wadsworth, Midgeley, & Warley, & all tithes in Ovenden, Skircote, Halifax, Northowram, Heptonstal, Southowram, Hipperholme, Shelf, & Brighouse.

VOL. III.

3 Anthony Waterhouse in his will states that he has a lease of the tithes of corn & hay & tithe money in the townships of Warley, Midgeley, Wadworth, and Stansfield, & also of wool & lambs of the grounds and townships of the north part of the Calder, within the Vicarage of Halifax, & that George Wheatley, Gent., his father in law, had a term of 2 or 3 years in the said lease, which he had surrendered to him. The testator gives the said tithe to G. W. during the minority of his son Jonas. Makes Michael W. a supervisor.

Arms granted by Dethick to Rob. Waterhouse 1573. M. P. B., iii., 100.

† A different account in the papers at the British Museum states John and Dorothy (who was living a widow in 1582 at Sowerby Bridge) had, with seven other children, a son John, who was kept in foreign parts as long as Anthony W. lived. W. C.

¹ This Jasper must, I conclude from the identity of name, be a Jasper Waterhouse of Fetter Lane, Gentleman, who made his will 20 Aug. 1686, "being very ancient;" makes his wife Executrix; names his dau. Eliz. W., dau. Mary Bonner, dau. Ann, w. of John Cooke. Proved 10 Feb. 1684. And, if so, then he must have been related to Elizabeth Waterhouse of St. Andrew's, Holborn, spinster. Will 19

Jan. 1669; proved Prerogative Court of Canterbury 7 Dec. 1671; to be bur. in Chelsey Church near her mother; sister Abigail, wife of Mr Thomas Moore, & their 3 daus; nephew Mr Thos Reynolds & his wife; kinsman Francis Jones of Kempton, co. Hants, Esq., & his son Mr John Jones; cousin Mr Milicent Forster; Mr Wr Jones & his wife; cousin Mr Eliz. Boucher; cousin Mr Bridget Barnsley the elder, cousin Mr Jasper Waterhouse the younger, & Mr Mary Bonner his sister, Mr Deguenis, Mr Elizab. Moldsworth, Mr Elizabeth Pleasent, Mr Paul Dayrell, Mr Elizab. Smallbones; maidservant Hester Crane; Executors kinsman Jasper Waterhouse the elder & Mr Robert Waterhouse; cousin Mr Gwillim; niece Mr Mary Waterhouse; cousin Mr Ann Waterhouse.

Again, another relative is Mary Waterhouse of London, spinster, 19 June 1675; proved 2 Aug. 1675; cousins Mr Ralph Keeling and Alice Winter, Elizab. Bouchier, sister to the Testatrix, then under 21, to be under the care of Alice Winter.

This Jeremy was not the above person of the name, but the son & heir of John W. of The Cross Hill, Yeo., whose will was proved between 1609 & 1611. He names this son & 2 daus of his son, also 2 daus of his own, Hester, wife of Wm Hartley, & Prudence, of John Briggs. Also his wife Jennet.

Jeremy, the son of Gregory, must, I think, have been the Rector of Darfield so called.

Waterhouse of Thornes.

This family is proved to be connected with those of Shibden by the will of Philip Waterhouse of Overthorpe 1614, who leaves to Robert Waterhouse, son of my Cousin Robert, of Wakefield, & he appoints one of his supervisors, Robert Waterhouse of Wakefield, mercer, if he survive me, if not, his brother John Waterhouse of Thornes.

The Cousinship might, however, arise from the marriage of the families, as if it originated in the male descent it must have been remote; the nearest it could have been would have been that their great-grandfathers were brothers.

John W. of Southowram gives a white horse for his Corspresent. Two priests to pray for his soul & his friends' souls. ¹ This Samuel mentions Samuel, son of Joshua W. of Halifax, clothier, & Samuel, son of Joshua W. of Halifax, alehousekeeper. The mother of one of these Samuels was Martha, & his father's will dated 23 Oct. 1628, proved 21 June 1630, in which he mentions Mary, one of the dau^s of Michael Waterhouse.

³ I very much doubt this Isaac & John being the sons of Isaac, of Washer Lane. It is scarcely probable that there should be no mention of any of their cousins in either of their wills, & besides they seem to be the Isaac & John W. mentioned in the will of Edmund Rogers 1646 as sons of John Waterhouse. In favour of it is that Isaac had taken Barnsley by his father's will.

John Waterhouse of Washer Lane.

In 1632 an indictment was obtained in Ct of K. B. by Isaac Naylor of Wood-lane in Sowerby against John W. of Washer-lane, Yeo., for £200 debt.

John. Isaac. Both under age 12 Dec. 1649, when the tuition was granted to Anthony W. of Skircote, Yeo.

The relationship of this family to those of Shibden Hall appears from a clause in the will of Thos Waterhouse of Braithwell 17 May 40 Eliz.: "I give to the Right Hon. the Lord Darcie for a remembrance a case of Pistols which were lately given me by my cousin Isaac Waterhouse;" which Isaac must have been he of Woodhouse, as there were no others of the name. On recollections there was another

A Robert Waterhouse of Headon made his will in 1616; mentions his wife Catherine & son Robert, & again Robert W. of Headon 1617 names Ann his wife, Robert, Mark, John, Grace, Ann, Alice, & Susan, wife of John Blades, his children.

An Edward W. of Skircote, who was probably of this family, made his will 7 June 1743; names Joan his wife, Edward, James, Nicholas, Isabel, Joan, & Sibil his children; names John Waterhouse, late of Newhouse; Edmund W. as a witness. Johannes Waterhouse, Eborac., filius Isaaci W. de Halifax, Yeo, admissus St. John's Col. Comb. 4 June 1842, 2004 17. (Polesy's WSS. Heal 7048)

John's Col., Camb., 4 June 1642, aged 17. (Baker's MSS., Harl. 7046.)
Who was John, son of Isaac Waterhouse of Halifax, Yeo., who was admitted of St. John's Coll., Camb., 4 June 1642, aged 17? (M. P. B., 2, 81.)

Waterhouse of Well Head.

This is Mr Radcliffe's view of the connection of the Wellhead family with those of Woodhouse. The upper part is not so well proved as other portions of the pedigree, but is probably correct.

The marriage of Whitehead & Fawkes I think very dubious.

^{*} Mr. Protheroe spent much time in trying to trace the exact descent of the Waterhouses of Well Head, but it has not been definitely settled. The great difficulty is the large number of the family called John and Isaac. Mr. Hunter states there were seven or eight of that name, brothers, living at the same time in Halifax.—J. W. C.

Some entries of this man's family in the Register of Thornhill: Agnes of Netherton, wid. Will 12 Sep. 1603 names children John, Thos, Edward, George, & daus.

Richard W. mar. Ann, dan. of James Greenwood, a younger brother of Greenwood of Greenwood Lee.

Sir Rich^d Tempest in 1630 granted a lease of certain coal mines near Bradford to Eliz. & Bridget Waterhouse. Eliz. mar. Tho^s Bullingham, Rector of Gisburn, & was living his widow at Gainsborough in 1655. Bridget was living a spinster at Bracewell 1655.

The order of their births is from the Mon^t at Bolton Percy. Three sisters of Col. Martin Bladen only are unmar., so that it is probable that the fourth d young. They were called at Court the Northern Stars.

Some accounts represent the wife of Hawke as having mar. 1 Col. Ruthven.

Another account says that she mar. 2 Mr Sharpe.

Of Martin Bladen there is some account in Nichols's 'Literary Anecdotes.' He mar. Mrs Fouche, niece of Col. Jory, & had a dau. Isabella who mar. John Tinker, Esq. (who d. in Scotland in 1746), & 2nd George Blount of Pembridge.
